

STRATEGIC OPPORTUNITIES FOR CHILD ACCIDENT PREVENTION

A joint conference between Child Accident Prevention Trust
& West Midlands Public Health Group

To be held at Austin Court, 80 Cambridge Street
Birmingham, B1 2NP
on Monday 3rd July 2006

Aims of the conference

Action is needed to address the problem of child accidents. This conference provides the opportunity for senior managers and practitioners in local authorities, the health sector other public services and voluntary organisations to consider how the latest policy opportunities for supporting partnership working and improving children's health can be used to reduce the numbers and severity of unintentional injuries and narrow injury-related inequalities.

- To identify what policies offer opportunities for action;
- To create opportunities for liaison between public health departments, children's trusts and other key agencies;
- To share and capitalise upon good practice;
- To draw on evidence of what works in injury prevention;
- To identify the gaps in support that need to be filled to facilitate optimal working and consider how to fill these gaps.

Speakers Include:

- Dr Sheila Shribman, National Clinical Director for Children, Department of Health;
- Dr Rashmi Shukla, Regional Director of Public Health, West Midlands Public Health Group;
- Roger Crouch, Director for Children and Learners, Government Office for the West Midlands.
